- Residential and day school programmes for teenagers aged 13-17
- Superb campus in Kensington Square, central London with garden, football pitch and tennis court
- There are a maximum of 65 residential participants and up to 15 day school participants and so close supervision and personal attention to each individual
- Accommodation is on campus with full board in single rooms with Internet access
- Choice of programmes to suit different interests
- An English speaking environment, with teenagers from all over the world

Campus

The programme takes place at Heythrop College, a small self-contained campus which is part of the University of London. The entrance is in beautiful Kensington Square, near Kensington High Street Underground station in zone 1. The campus itself is arranged around a lovely garden with an all-weather playing surface for tennis and team games. It is a unique, private and secluded world in the centre of Kensington, only 10 minutes' walk away from the main Frances King School.

Teachers

Our teachers are friendly, enthusiastic and caring, offering fun imaginative classes for all ages and abilities.
